Bespoke Herringbone

“My signature design is contemporary, but very
warm in terms of pattern,
feel and colour.

Very London, I would say:
metropolitan but
comfortable.”

"I chose the materials to be complimentary to the architectural details of the house."

Private Residence

16

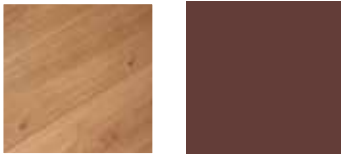

Western Norway is
the maritime sector's gold coast,
the Havila building is known as its Blue Diamond.

17

When planning of a new headquarters for Havila and Havyard started, Per Sævik, major owner and chairman of the board, said that he wanted something different. And different it certainly is. Architect Georg Grimstad produced drawings and a model that everybody was delighted with.

*“Colour is my day-long obsession,
